

To Whom it may concern

Don Alder performed at our Bistro recently and it was a Very special night of music!

Don was not only Very personable, and polite, but was an Amazing performer, and nearly everyone who attended the show that evening has come back in and commented about how incredible he was as well as what a nice person he seemed to be. In fact, before he started, on his break, and when he finished his sets, he went around the room and talked with many of the guests.

We Loved having him and truly hope he can come back to the Bistro for another unforgettable concert, some time in the fairly near future!

Sincerely
